

WESTERN STATES CANCER RESEARCH PRIVACY POLICY

Western States Cancer Research NCORP (WSCR), d.b.a. Altitude Clinical Research, places a high priority on protecting your privacy.

Personally Identifiable Information

Visitors that register for events through our website and individuals that sign up to receive WSCR e-communications voluntarily provide us with contact information (such as name and e-mail address). We may use this information for specific, limited purposes. You may always "opt out," either now or at any time in the future, if you do not wish to receive our messages.

IP Addresses

WSCR uses your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer www.councilofnonprofits.org, and for statistical metrics used to track website visitor traffic.

How Your Information May Be Used

WSCR uses your personal information to provide you with personalized service; to send e-mail alerts to you; to answer your requests; to process your event registrations; etc. You may choose to opt out at any time.

Email Privacy

WSCR does not provide, sell, or rent email addresses to anyone outside the organization.
